METHOD

How this audit is built

This document profiles every captive Global Capability Centre move corroborated by GCCPROs in India between 1 January and 31 August 2026. Every move earns its own page. A source register appears at the end of the document.

A qualifying move has four properties: the parent company is headquartered outside India; the centre is a captive in-house operation covering technology, engineering, IT, R&D, operations, analytics, GBS or shared services; the move is either a first-time India GCC or a materially large expansion of an existing captive; and it falls inside the audit window.

Excluded: third-party IT-services, BPO and TPA delivery firms; pure sales or marketing offices; pure manufacturing plants; and pre-existing India captives incorrectly claimed as first-time launches. Where a company already ran a captive tech, engineering, R&D, operations or shared-services centre in India, any 2026 move is classified as an expansion.

Corroboration and confidence: each entry is corroborated against corporate press releases, trade press, entity registrations and Propstack lease data. Where a source is a single trade-press report, a partner-published announcement, or a state-government readout, the profile carries a status-flag chip near the top disclosing what remains unconfirmed. Twenty-seven of the 112 moves carry a status-flag chip.

Announced vs completed: where the 2026 event is corroborated only as an announced commitment (no traced physical opening or operational commencement by 31 August 2026), the profile carries an amber status-flag chip. These entries remain in the count but their status is transparent on the page.

Parent-snapshot enrichment: founded year, global HQ, listing status, revenue and global staff figures are drawn from public corporate records at the time this audit was compiled. Revenue and employee counts are time-sensitive; readers using these numbers for critical decisions should re-verify against the parent's most recent annual report.

Footprint and lease totals: where disclosed, footprint is shown as the parent disclosed it (sq ft, sq m or acres). Multi-year, staged, letter-of-intent leases and pre-window signings carry a status-flag chip. The leasing-footprint chart aggregates only disclosed square-foot figures

HEADLINE COUNTS

CATEGORY	COUNT
Distinct parent companies	110
Captive GCC moves	112
First-time launches	42
Major expansions	70
Profiles carrying a status flag	27

Window: 1 January to 31 August 2026. Foreign-parent captive centres only. Third-party IT-services / BPO / TPA and pure sales, marketing or manufacturing sites are out of scope. Where a discrete opening date, physical occupation or material increment is unresolved, the profile carries a status-flag chip transparently marking the residual uncertainty. The full URL-level source register for each profile is available at admin@gccpros.com.

allocated to the city where the space physically sits (not to the first city in a multi-city profile header). Square-metre and land-area (acres) disclosures are held separately and are not converted into the chart.

HQ country rule: the country field uses the legal domicile of the ultimate listed or corporate parent. Operational headquarters or ownership are noted separately on the parent snapshot where they differ (Airbus SE: Leiden legal / Toulouse operational; Aon plc: Dublin legal / London operational; The Standard: Portland USA / Meiji Yasuda ownership).

Where numbers are not publicly disclosed, the field reads "Not publicly disclosed" or "Not publicly available." GCCPROs does not invent figures.

Companies vs moves: 110 distinct parent companies produced 112 captive GCC moves. Google appears twice (Bengaluru + Gurugram); Infineon Technologies appears twice (Bengaluru Bagmane lease + C2i acquisition).
